BIO.

Thabo Selibo (b.2001) was born in Berea, Lesotho and grew up in Maseru. In 2019 embarked a year on Architectural Technology at Limkokwing University of Creative Technology. Selibo is a self-taught artist, he uses all chaos within him and the world to connect with the world outside, with the use of wire sculptures, paintings and pencil sketches.

Artist Statement

I am more like a warrior unlike most found. I battle myself from within, put it all in my artwork. Just like my path, my artworks are dark and twisted, and loses its way consistently, but each time it gets its rhythm, it is beautiful like falling stars and thunderstorms.

“Understand me. I’m not like an ordinary world. I have my madness, I live in another dimension and I do not have time for things that have no soul.” ~ Charles Bukowski.

Without question, my artwork captures the soul of one to really see, not look at it, from painting, pencil sketches or sculptures. I tell stories untold but needed to be heard.
